Nevada H. Van Valkenburgh, known as the ten million dollar widow, was granted a divorce from Phillip Van Valkenburgh, a New York society man and a familiar figure in European capitals, in the superior court here Friday afternoon, Judge Milton A. Shumway presiding. The case was an uncontested one and the decree was granted on the ground of desertion. Radiating class from every angle that one looked at the charming "widow" she was a figure of special interest for the small number of very interested persons who heard the testimony in the case and obtained an inkling of how her husband grew negligent of her charms and went to live apart from her a few weeks after their marriage.

Rev. James H. George, Jr., will conduct services at St. Paul's mission in Plainfield Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Bill, Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mrs. Charles Chase, Mrs. Henry Morey, Mrs. Charles Hyde are the directresses of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Congregational church for March. Edward L. Smith of New Mexico is visiting his sister, Mrs. H. B. Surrey, Broad street. Mrs. Van Valkenburgh was gowned in a modish frock of olive green and her dainty pumps and silk hostery were of shades to match. She wore a chic black hat but severely plain, of small shape with a single pink rose for trimming.

Claiming Pomfret as her residence, Mrs. Van Valkenburgh was entitled to sue for her divorce in Connecticut. She testified that she had claimed Pomfret as her home since the death The Ladies' Aid society of the Eap-tist church held a food sale at the market of Gallup Brothers and Lindner

She wanted $50,000 as balm to soothe her wounded feelings over the marriage of Mr. Van Valkenburgh. Mrs. Van Valkenburgh mes van valkenburgh deeded a piece of property valued at $66,000 away at this time, to raise the money needed in connection with this development, she testified.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crumley on the West Side on Thursday evening there was a kitchen shower for Miss Zylpha Colvin, teacher in the Danielson graded school. The party of 14 was made up of teachers and friends of Miss Colvin, who was given a complete surprise. Refreshments were served. Learned of Another Affinity, In January after her marriage, Mrs. Van Valkenburgh learned of her husband being at dinner at another hotel than the St. Regis with another woman. From that time they occupied separate apartments at their hotel and Mr. Van Valkenburgh left an order with the hotel management that he would no longer be responsible for the bills she contracted there—saying that she spent too much money. Although Howard Call, manager of the base-ball team and Henry Burnett, repre-senting the school for the league pur-poses, will be at Putham this (Satur-day) afternoon for a meeting of repre-sentatives of teams that are to make up the high school beseball league dur-ing the company season.
